

4 May 1983

Vice Admiral James A. Lyons, USN
Commander, Second Fleet
FPO New York 09501

Admiral:

Many thanks for your kind hospitality on my visit to the Second Fleet. Needless to say one comes away somewhat in awe but also very grateful for the obvious dedication and competence of our military personnel.

I enjoyed our breakfast and the opportunity to talk with you. I certainly came away mindful of your intelligence needs and what we might do to help. I will be pressing for every opportunity to do so.

With best wishes and thanks.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon